I commission Reinhardt Auction Service to sell the items listed below to the highest bidder at public auction. I certify that the items are free from all encumbrances, that I am the owner, and that I have clear title and the right to sell them. I agree to accept all responsibility for providing merchantable title. I agree to hold harmless the auctioneers against any claims of the nature referred to in this agreement. I, as consignor, will provide insurance for theft, damage or liability while items are on auction lot. Payment will not be made to the titled owner until the auction company has clear and correct title in hand. Titles and lien releases must accompany vehicle upon delivery to auction lot. All items (except firearms) must be delivered to auction lot at least 4 days prior to auction day. Funds will not be paid to consignor for items sold with major problems, which have not been brought to the attention of the auction company, until buyer is satisfied. Once items are consigned, items must be at this auction to be sold.
